Turning Many to Righteousness

Oh! That we would be the wise who shine as the brightness of the firmament for ever and ever!

Christ's people all over this world have been sent forth “bearing precious seed” to turn many to righteousness.

This is the very reason God's people remain, and will remain in this world until the moment Christ Jesus comes to “judge the quick and the dead at His appearing”

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom. II Timothy 4:1

While the people of God wait for the return of our precious Savior, may it be said of us that we are good and faithful servants watching for His return!

Blessed is that servant, whom His Lord when He cometh shall find so doing. Matthew 24:45&46

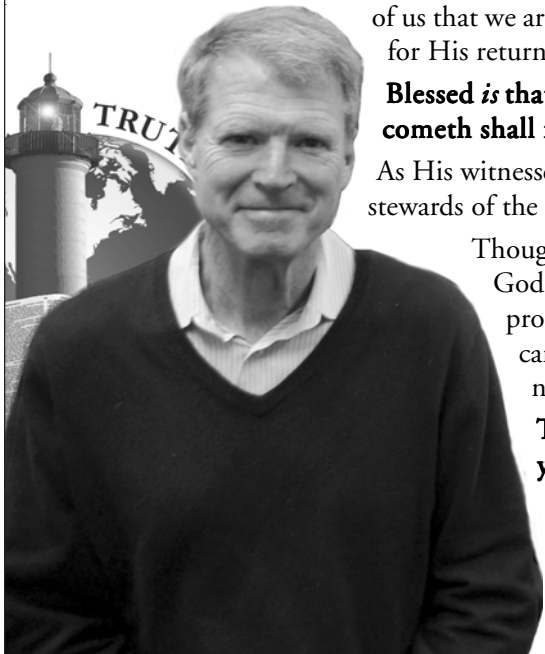

As His witnesses may it be that we be faithful stewards of the mysteries of God-His Word!

Though this world remains at enmity with God, making very difficult our task of proclaiming the Gospel, Christ's people can rejoice, trusting that our labor is not in vain.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always Family Radio is Moving our International Headquarters!

After more than forty-four years in Oakland, Family Radio, (-Lord willing) will be moving our headquarters to nearby Alameda, California.

The move will enable us to better serve the technical and financial needs of Family Radio, and allow Family Radio to save tremendously on annual building lease and upkeep costs.

As we strive to be ever more effective and find ways to save precious funds, the Lord has provided the means for Family Radio to purchase our own building. Lord willing, the new building will not only provide Family Radio with a new home, but, equally important, it will provide income from present and future tenants to offset annual building ownership and maintenance costs. Rather than having to spend donated funds on a building and grounds, the new headquarters should be self-supporting, leaving precious funds for the proclamation of the Gospel.

Google Plus - Social Platform

Family Radio has added to its social platforms with the addition of Google Plus (+1). Along with Facebook and Twitter, Google Plus is another way that you can join us in sharing your comments with our listeners and friends. Summer - Pointing People to Christ

Summertime can bring new opportunities to point people to Christ! Generally, the weather is nice enough to be outdoors at different gathering places, providing situations where it's easy to introduce those God brings your way to where they can listen to the Bible being read over Family Radio.

To assist, we have various materials to help spread the Word: Invitation-to-Listen cards, book markers, bumper stickers, “Words of Comfort, Words of Hope,” brochures, and more. And, we might add, everything is free for the asking! To order your supply, you may call, write, or go to our Web site online: 1-800-543-1495; Family Radio, Oakland, CA 94621; www.familyradio.org.

1 John 1:8-10

Living in a Sinful World

by Harold Camping

The word “just” in verse 9 has to do with the righteousness of God. God is absolutely righteous and perfect in all that He does, and when we talk about anything Jesus does, it is always perfectly just. Clearly God is making the point that we are all sinners. We don’t like this one bit, but here is a fact that we have to live with as a human being. By nature we are sinners, and the quicker we accept that as a fact, the more progress we will make in understanding God’s provision for sinners. If we say that we do not sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and we do not have truth. This statement is in the Bible and we cannot get away from it. I must declare that I do sin. The Bible instructs us that we are sinners, and there is no value in trying to deny what we read in the Bible, and what we know really to be the case in our individual lives.

All of us would like to declare, “I do not sin.” We may think God’s declaration about sin doesn’t include me because I am not very sinful. Or, I confessed my sins the other day so I’m fine. But this is utter nonsense. We don’t ever want to play games with sin. Sin is very real and very terrible. It is something that we have to deal with, and deal with honestly. I must declare that I do sin, even though I try to do things right. It is because I am conceived and born in sin, and I am part of a sinful world. Sin is always very close at hand in my life because this is a very sinful world. I don’t even recognize the sin in my life sometimes.

Therefore, we need the healing power and remedy of Christ’s love and forgiveness, because what Christ’s love produced in the world made all the difference. He knows my confession that I know I am a sinner. There’s no point in trying to avoid that confession, because it is a fact; but right after that I can go to God pleading for mercy. That sin of mine is there whether I like it or not. But God knows all about it. There is nothing I can hide from God. God knows everything about the sin in my life. Every one of us needs Christ’s love and forgiveness.

“We live in a sinful world; we are part of that sinful world; so that we no longer are able to distinguish our sinful lives from the world’s life of sin.”

But I am not as sin-free as I would like to believe. That is where the problem often lies – we don’t realize how much sin clings to us. We live in a sinful world; we are part of that sinful world; so that we no longer are able to distinguish our sinful lives from the world’s life of sin. And we get the naïve notion that we don’t live in sin. But it is not so. We have to face the fact that sin is very real in our lives.

But it doesn’t stop there. God came for sinners. He came to give forgiveness to sinners. That identifies with me: I am a sinner who needs the help of the Lord Jesus Christ. And Christ is telling us here that He can give us help. God reminds us that we have sin, and it is God’s business to forgive our sins.

The goal of a child of God is to be more sin-free. I know that sin is something ugly, and I want to be a child of God who has been washed clean. We only want to be obedient to Christ, whom we love. We know He is a forgiving God. It is so wonderful to be free from guilt because I know Christ will forgive me, because I am His child. Before we are saved we are trudging in dirty mud, as it were. We try to wash and just get dirtier. We want to walk out of the mud, and God will help us if we indeed are His child.

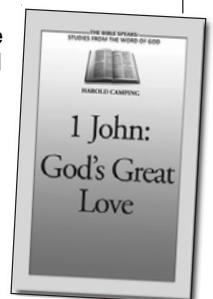

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Family Radio's Prayer Requests

Prayer Time

*...Pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you...
2 Thessalonians 3:1*

Pray for the thousands and thousands of men and women that are incarcerated in our prisons across the country who are receiving God's Word over Family Radio. Letters pour into our Oakland offices from these dear brothers and sisters asking for prayer. Some will be released soon, while others are in prison for a long, long, time. Family Radio is their main source of daily fellowship with the Lord, and they are crying out for prayer!

Pray for those who are hearing the Gospel today over the radio. We praise God for allowing us to broaden our outreach to the New York City / Northern New Jersey areas with the addition of radio station WFME 1560 AM, as well as to many communities across our country. Many may be listening for the first time, and will be hearing a message or a song that God can use to begin the drawing process of salvation. "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Romans 10:17).

Pray that our Lord would use Family Radio's Internet outreach. Each day millions and millions of individuals all over the world are roaming the World Wide Web seeking information. We have recently launched 15 new Web pages in various languages on our international site to offer programs and literature, while continuing to offer support in several other languages as well.

Pray for God's guidance and direction for those who serve our Lord in the various departments and stations of Family Radio, as well as for our leadership - Family Radio's board members. May our Lord give them wisdom, strength and joy as they carry-out their daily tasks serving Him.

Thanks be to God! We humbly thank our Lord for hearing our prayers and for answering, whether it is a yes, no, or wait — we rejoice to be able to say from the heart — "Thy will be done."

abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

I Corinthians 15:58

No! Our work as servants of a Mighty God is not in vain, and we should never trust what we see or feel with our physical senses.

Rather, we must come to trust our spiritual senses which were reawakened at the point we were "born again." If God's Holy Spirit has breathed upon us, we have been given new spiritual senses and a new mind - the mind of Christ Jesus!

Let the servants of Christ be about our Master's work; and could it be that we would be those "...that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever!"

May Family Radio be used to bring comfort and hope to a world blanketed in fear and confusion!
