News and Updates from the Ministry of Family Radio

Update:

Family Radio's Move to New Offices Progressing

Family Radio has taken another step in its move to a new headquarters with the completion of the purchase of a building in nearby Alameda, California. The new offices will, Lord willing, better serve our technical and financial needs, as well as, provide tremendous annual savings on building-lease and upkeep costs.

Annual savings will reduce Family Radio's operational expenses, helping to strengthen the overall ministry and free-up important funds for other broadcast-related expenses.

Included in the plans are a new chapel for prayer, weekly Bible Studies, and other Family Radio gatherings, as well as, more efficient studios, offices, computer server rooms, and a new Net-control operational center for monitoring all of Family Radio's stations and translators.

Throughout its history Family Radio has moved its headquarters several times. Initially, in the city of San Francisco, from where it started in downtown, to the Portola Valley district, to a storefront on San Bruno Ave. Then, in 1971 Family Radio moved across the Bay to its long time Oakland location.

With the move to our new headquarters, we trust that God is preparing Family Radio for the next step in His plan.

Please join us in offering our thanksgiving to Our Lord for His generous provision - and please continue to pray for us as we begin the necessary renovations of our new home.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9

If We Confess Our Sin

by Harold Camping

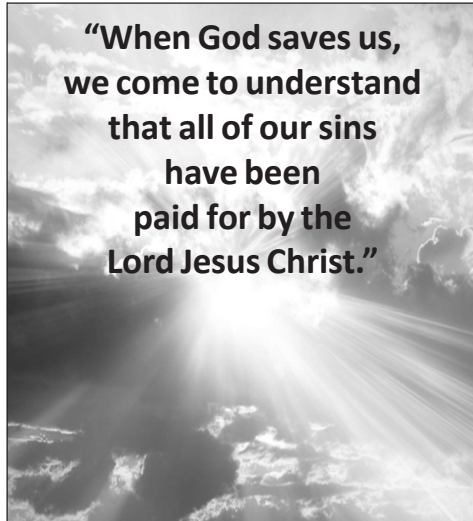

Many people think, that wonderful verse teaches that if we confess our sins, we can be saved as a result of that confession, right at that moment. If you isolate this verse, it can give that impression.

Theoretically that can be possible, but it is a verse that really shows us our condition and our need for Christ. It indicates a path we can walk. But we know from the rest of the Bible that nothing we do can save us. We can repeat this verse again and again, and still be just as unsaved. Salvation is God's work entirely, and we wait upon God to do His work of saving, if He has chosen to save us.

As we walk with God and talk about these things, and search the Bible for more information, we have a desire to be clear of our sins. When God saves us, we come to understand that all of our sins have been paid for by the Lord Jesus Christ. Then when we begin to sense that God is working in our lives, we begin to look at our sin differently than before. I realize my desires are changing. I want more and more to only do God's will. That must come into my life as something very important, and maybe there is hope for me that I, too, am becoming a child of God.

1 John 1:9 is written in the context of recognizing that we are a sinner who needs to confess his sin. Even after we are saved, sin continues to plague us. To make confession of sin is a necessary part of our relationship with God. "If we confess our sin" indicates that we must be sure that we do confess our sins. He – God, Himself – is faithful and just to forgive our sins. What a promise! He is faithful and just and will certainly forgive us. We can depend upon it, because this is the Word of God, from God's mouth. God is faithful and just! Praise God – He has forgiven my sins!

And He cleanses us from all unrighteousness. Why does He say "all?" Because God is assuring us that He will forgive all of our sins. Not just some of our unrighteousness - all unrighteousness. This is God's declaration. God says plainly that

He reacts to our confession.

When we are a child of God, we want to try to be as obedient to Christ as possible, because sin continues to plague us. We don't hesitate to cry out to Him for mercy. The wonderful thing is that the more we go to Christ begging for forgiveness, the more our relationship with Christ grows. We should want to stay close to Christ. We want Him to be our Savior, and our only Savior. We know that Christ – the One we are learning about and learning to love devotedly – will forgive us. Praise God for that kind of a Savior - Someone who makes promises and keeps His promises.

We know that He has promised to forgive our sins, but we want and need that right relationship all the time. That is something we need to cultivate, because by nature we also think we need the world. We don't need it at all, but we think we do. We need the world like we need poison! Confessing our sins will bring us closer to Christ, and help us have victory over all our sins. We want to be like Christ; that is our goal.

So as Christians, we want to confess our sins to God regularly, as we strive to gain victory over all sin. But what does it mean to confess our sins? To confess is not just to say nice words to God. It means to be completely honest with God; to turn away from sin and ask for mercy for that sin, and hold nothing back as we confess our needs.

As a child of God we are to hate the sin in our life so badly that it is making us exceedingly uncomfortable. It is ruining our relationship with God. Sin should have no part in our life; it should be completely alien to us. Have you got that clearly in your minds? This is the nature of a child of God. So when we see sin in our life we are to cry to God for help and mercy.

But if there is no change as far as sin having residence in our life, then we are in trouble with God and we must deal with that by again crying out to God for mercy. We must ask God to help us hate the sin in our life and take it out. "Oh God have mercy; make this sin be completely gone out of my life." If we don't get that sin out of our life, it will continue to plague us and grab hold of us. We want God to be entirely active in helping us. We have to deal with this sin and pay attention to it, and ask God to pay attention to it, because we want victory over that sin.

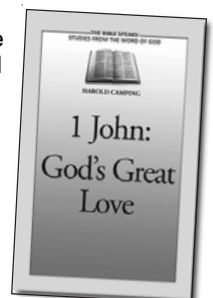

After we have achieved victory, then the evidence that we really have victory is that the temptation to sin is gone. That

Family Radio's Prayer Requests

Prayer Time

...Pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you...

2 Thessalonians 3:1

Each day, our Lord is directing new people to hear the Gospel over Family Radio. Pray for those who are hearing the Gospel today over the radio in your area, as well as, across our country. Many may be listening for the first time to a message or a song that God can use to encourage their hearts in the Lord.

Pray that our Lord would use Family Radio's Web site, both the domestic, as well as, the international sites, to bless, encourage, build-up, and save, those who visit it. Each month, thousands of visitors from all over the world are logging-on to hear God's Word. We praise our Lord for this tremendous opportunity to witness for Him.

We praise God for His use of social media for the ministry. Through the various platforms, like, Facebook, Twitter, and Google Plus, people are connecting with us from all over the world. Longtime friends, and new ones, are sharing their comments and praising our Lord with us - a wonderful way to have a two-way conversation, with all who join us.

Your continued prayers would be appreciated for our staff — and YOU, our co-laborers, as we partner to serve our Lord together. Family Radio is God's ministry, and whether we are serving Him at one of our stations, offices, or on location, as a technician servicing an antenna site; or out on the streets of various towns as a listener passing out Invitation-to-Listen cards; or at home as a prayer warrior for the ministry, we are all part of God's family of believers honoring Him. We praise God for this wonderful joint venture that He has raised up everywhere - to His glory!

We thank and praise God for His goodness and mercy, as He allows us to continue to proclaim His Word — in homes, to our neighborhoods, across our country, and around the world! Thank the Lord that it is still the day of salvation (2Corinthians 6:2)!

sin is no longer troubling us. Otherwise, that sin is still standing in the way of my right relationship with Christ, which I should have as a child of God. We must keep pleading with God; we don't have to hesitate at all. We need God's help again and again to protect us from sin.

Only after we have achieved victory over that sin can we feel our right relationship with Christ has been restored. Only then can we feel joy in our soul, because we know we have been forgiven and cleansed. When we finally frankly and honestly see our sin, and we openly confess to our Savior without any holding back - that is when we feel the joy of forgiveness and Christ's love.

I know that God forgave my sins when He saved me. That was God's action entirely, and my confession of sin was not necessary for salvation. However, I know I am clean with God because I confessed my sin. This is what I need again and again.

The Joy of Sharing

...I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.
Habakkuk 3:18

Social Media - Thank you, Family Radio, for being on Facebook. I have made two wonderful friends off of your site! This truly is Family...the Family of God!

Social Media (Facebook) - Thank you so much and God bless this powerful work of God. I am from South Africa.

Social Media (Google Plus) - Jesus Christ is the Light of my life. I want my beautiful sweet sister, brothers, and friends to see the beautiful love and light of the King of kings, simply with love! No judgment! Love is what Jesus Christ came to live and show the world! In my simple humble way, that is what I want! Far from perfect - I love people!

Hardy, IA – KEGR- Dear Family Radio, I thank God for all of you at Family Radio that work so hard to make a wonderful station. Thank you for letting us have our station in Fort Dodge, Iowa. When we were without it, it was very lonely. Our local so-called Christian station along with others like them have no substance, and of course they are a church with hardly any music that is good to listen. And their Scripture readings are only bits and pieces of the Bible. I was thirsty for the sound of truth. My heart aches to hear the sweet music, and the Scripture that feeds my soul. I thank my Jesus for putting it in your (Family Radio) heart to let us have here 89.5FM.

Yonkers, NY – WFME - Dear Family Radio, A token gift always to help you "spread the Word." I am so happy to listen to clear radio broadcasts on 1560 AM in Yonkers, NY. I encourage you for the lovely music that is so peaceful and restful as I listen each day. I also hope for longer Bible reading time as you can arrange.

Johns Island, SC – WFCH – Dear Family Radio, Thank you and God for letting me hear your God-glorifying music and teaching me the Word of God. God has used your station to bring me the truth from the Bible and now I can say that I am a child of God. I thank God for Mr. Camping and his teaching. He had feet of clay just as all men on earth, but God used him nightly and I look forward to meeting him on the new heaven and earth.

Radio and learning the Gospel under her father, Harold Camping, Susan watched Family Radio grow into the expansive instrument God so powerfully uses to reach the world with the Gospel.

After seven years of service, Susan has left her full-time position as manager-director with Family Radio and will be seeking other avenues in which God can use her.

Susan was very active in Family Radio's international outreach, managing staff, overseeing programming production for broadcasts to almost every continent on the globe. She was instrumental with Family Radio's International Web development, overseeing language translation and archival organization.

More recently, Susan also oversaw the initial development of the new Listener Care department, designed to meet the needs of Family Radio listeners. She exuded empathy and compassion with "Listener Care" and her presence will be sorely missed.

Susan remains as Board Secretary for Family Radio, as she transitions away from her day-to-day responsibilities.

Please join us in praising our Lord for Susan Espinoza and her faithfulness. May we thank Him for her wonderful contributions to Family Radio. Please pray with us for His guiding Hand of blessing and wisdom upon her as she seeks to serve Him.

that a man be found faithful. 1 Corinthians 4:2
