News and Updates About the Ministry

Changing hearts, changing lives:

Family Radio's Prison Ministry

Our Lord is using Family Radio in extraordinary ways for a powerful ministry — reaching behind the barbed wire fences and thick concrete walls of our prisons, blessing men and women behind bars with His Word!

Inmates from all over the country write to us daily, telling how they are so thankful to God for Family Radio. The radio programs and printed materials they receive from us are in many cases, like a “lifeline,” as their only connection with God’s Holy Word, the Bible.

Some write to say that they’ve learned about God’s salvation through Christ Jesus while they were in prison. Others tell how they want to be used of the Lord as His witnesses to fellow inmates, as they seek to repent, and honor God. But the strongest cry from them is asking for our prayers.

There are those who are serving a light sentence, or are at the end of their long sentence, and will be out soon. They ask for prayer for their family and friends to receive them with open arms as they return to society. They also ask that we pray that God would help them to truly change their ways - to keep them on His path for their lives.

Then there are those inmates who write, telling us that they will be in prison for a long, long time - some, even on “Death Row.” They also are asking us for prayer — prayer that they will uphold their faith, knowing that even though they are behind bars, in Christ they are set free!

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. John 8:36

Your prayers and support to Family Radio are being used so wonderfully — including, changing hearts and lives and ministering to people behind prison walls. We may not be able to enter there, but Family Radio’s signals are, as God’s Word penetrates these barriers to reach those who are depending upon receiving Family Radio each and every day.

Excerpts from some of the letters we have received are included in our listener comment portion of the newsletter — “The Joy of Sharing.”

New Booklet on Colossians 3 - “True Christian Living”

A new publication has been transcribed and edited into a booklet from some of Harold Camping’s last studies on Colossians 3, regarding, “True Christian Living.” In this booklet, Mr. Camping asks, “As we go through life’s daily tasks, spending our time, is there in the back of our minds a controlling force saying: ‘Is this pleasing to God?’ and, ‘What is the peace of God? Is it relative to our relationship with God, or with our fellow man?’” These and other questions are carefully examined in this verse-by-verse study of Colossians 3. Mr. Camping carefully examines God’s Word, looking at all that the Scriptures have to say on a particular topic, and how it applies to our relationship with God, and to our walk with Him. For a free copy of this booklet, you may order it by phone: toll free—1-800-543-1495; the Internet: www.familyradio.com; or mail: Family Radio, Oakland, CA, 94621.

Thank You from Harold Camping’s Family and Family Radio

On behalf of Family Radio and the Camping family, I would like to thank the Family Radio listeners for their outpouring of love and caring upon the death of Harold Camping. We received countless sympathy cards and expressions of condolence, and we are so grateful to God for these kind and encouraging cards and letters, which were a great source of comfort to Mrs. Camping and the Family Radio staff. To God be all the glory! Sincerely in Christ, Susan Espinoza (Harold Camping’s daughter).

Although Harold Camping is home with the Lord, God's mercy is everlasting and His truth endures to all generations:

For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations. Psalm 100:5

This is why we are pleased to present a study by Harold Camping based on the truths of the Bible. Here, we are continuing his study on the important topics: "Day by Day" and "Forgive Us Our Debts."

Lord, Teach Us to Pray

A STUDY BY HAROLD CAMPING

The Lord's prayer is given to us in the Word of God in two passages, Luke 11:2-4 and Matthew 6:9-13:

After this manner therefore pray ye:

*Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.*

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

*For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever.*

Amen.

Day by Day

In Luke, God says, "day by day," and when we tie this passage together with the phrase in Matthew 6:11, "Give us this day our daily bread," we get this picture: "Give us Christ day by day, on a continuing basis, that we might have bread for the morrow," from moment to moment.

What is the bread that the Bible talks about?

Jesus says in John 6:35, "I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst."

He says in John 6:51, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

When we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread," effectively we are saying to God, "O God, give us the Lord Jesus Christ that we might be in Him, spiritually nourished and strengthened, so that we can walk day to day, moment to moment. Whatever the future holds, He is sufficient for us."

"And Forgive Us Our Debts"

At least three words are commonly used in the New Testament to signify "sin," including the word "debt."

We are debtors to God because we have sinned. The Bible says, "For the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). There is a penalty that we must pay to God for our sins, and that payment is eternal destruction. When we pray, "forgive us our debts," effectively, we are praying, "O God, have mercy on me. I'm a sinner. Will you pay the penalty that I rightly deserve to pay?"

The Lord Jesus came to demonstrate how He endured that payment on our behalf from the foundation of the world. He demonstrated how He ransomed His elect from the power of the grave.

This is a lesson taken from the booklet, "Lord, Teach Us To Pray," by Harold Camping. A complete copy of the booklet is available free, by calling: 1-800-543-1495, or writing to:

Mark D. Galeoto - Home with the Lord!

Mark Galeoto, program host on Family Radio, went home to be with the Lord on April 10, 2014, after suffering a long illness.

An avid fan of Family Radio as a listener to WFME, he came to the station in New Jersey to help as a volunteer and was asked to stay. He became a "family friend" on-air to the FME listeners, as a native son. He then ventured out west and landed at Family Radio's International Headquarters in Oakland, California.

Adapting well to his new network responsibilities, the Lord had prepared him well for his service as a regular host on Family Radio. In the 90's, Mark served as the beloved host of the programs, "Quiet Hours," and "Patterns in Music." He is currently heard (pre-recorded) on the weekend programs on Saturday, during the afternoon and overnight hours. Mark loved to share the Scriptures, as he shared from his heart, ministering to potentially millions of listeners who would happen to be tuning in to his programs. Mark loved the Lord and enjoyed serving God. He also had the joy of meeting his wife Carla, as the Lord brought them together at the Oakland offices where Carla worked in the Administration Department.

People would often write to say how much they thanked the Lord for using Mark over the air — and those from the East would underscore, because he's family! His eastern expressions and way of saying things would always give him away as a "true Easterner!" Yes, Mark was family — a member of God's family — and is now at peace in the Presence of His Heavenly Father!

Words of Comfort, Words of Hope!

We continue to offer you Scripture verses specially selected to give you challenge, comfort and hope as you reflect on the Words and promises of God.

Jesus My Redeemer

Job 19:25: For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth...

Psalms 49:15: But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me.

Isaiah 44:6: Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and His Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

Isaiah 47:4: As for our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 60:16: ...and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

Romans 3:23-26: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Colossians 1:12-14: Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

Rest in the Lord

Psalms 46:1: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Psalms 55:22: Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and He shall sustain thee: He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Isaiah 14:3: And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve...

Jeremiah 29:11: For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil...

Jeremiah 31:3: ... I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

Matthew 11:28: Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Family Radio Prayer Requests

Prayer Time

...Pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you...

2 Thessalonians 3:1

Pray for the thousands and thousands of men and women that are incarcerated in our prisons across the country who are receiving God's Word over Family Radio. Letters pour into our Oakland offices from these dear brothers and sisters asking for prayer. Some will be released soon, while other are in prison for a long, long, time. Family Radio is their main source of daily fellowship with the Lord, and they are crying out for prayer!

Pray for those who are hearing the Gospel today over the radio. Many may be listening for the first time, and heard a message or a song that God can use to begin the drawing process of salvation.

Pray that our Lord would use Family Radio's Internet outreach. Each day millions and millions of individuals all over the world are roaming the World Wide Web seeking information. God's Word is the best "news" that a person can receive!

Pray for God's guidance and direction for those who serve our Lord in the various departments and stations of Family Radio, as well as for our leadership - Family Radio's board members. May our Lord give them wisdom, strength and joy as they carry-out their daily tasks serving Him.

Praise with us our wonderful Lord for His mercy and lovingkindness. We humbly thank Him for hearing our prayers and for answering, whether it is a yes, no, or wait — we rejoice to be able to say from the heart — "Thy will be done."

FAMILY RADIO FAITH PARTNERS

Perhaps you've heard us make reference over the radio or through our printed materials to "Faith Partners," and wondered what that meant. Then, again, maybe you are a loyal "Faith Partner" and are very familiar with what it means to serve the Lord in this way with Family Radio.

Faith Partners have been used over the years by God as committed servants of His to regularly support Family Radio, as the Lord leads - usually each month. Their commitment is between them and the Lord, by faith, through His gracious provision. They support this ministry as they can — customarily informing us of their planned amount that they hope to send each month, as the Lord provides — to be a part of God's marvelous outreach to people in need of the Gospel of salvation, through Christ Jesus.

So, we are encouraging you to consider becoming a Faith Partner with us here at Family Radio; or, those who are already supporting the ministry as one, to re-commit their involvement in serving in this way. Write to us at: Family Radio, Oakland, CA 94621, or go online to join: www.familyradio.com. Thank you for joining us in our service to the Lord!

The Joy of Sharing
*...I will rejoice in the LORD,
 I will joy in the God of my salvation. Habakkuk 3:18*

Umatilla, OR (KPFR) - I thank you so much for being there to help us grow in our relationship with Jesus. Thank you for sending your newsletter "OpenLine" - it is an awesome blessing. It's my prayer that God blesses you in all that you do in His glorious Name! Once, again, thank you - thank you - THANK YOU! My cellie and I will continue to have you in our prayers. Ray

Milwaukee, WI (WMWK) - I was influenced by many things I thought were religious and became very confused and fell back into a life of destruction. Then, while scrolling through the radio dial I stopped at 88.1 FM in which Mr. Camping was teaching. I've never heard a man teach like him, because I have always been hesitant of man-made doctrines, and denominational teaching, but he sounded different. I've prayed many times for understanding, but have yet to understand fully what has happened to me, as I seek God's truth. I am so grateful for your radio ministry that helps me a lot. My prayers are with your ministry! Eric

Huntingdon, PA (WKDN-FM) - Greetings! I truly hope that this letter finds you in the absolute joy of our Lord Jesus Christ. My name is Charles and I ask that you would pray for me, for healing, strength and deliverance, and prosperity in Jesus name. I stand in need of the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Please send me the book you offer free, "I Hope God Will Save Me." Thank you so much. I pray that your ministry may prosper in all things and be in health, even as your souls prosper in the things of God.

Youngstown, OH (WYTN) - May this letter reach this ministry in God's blessed peace. My name is James. I am a faithful listener and member of your ministry. You have really blessed my life with the Bible Readings, the music, and devotionals. I would like to receive some materials from you so my faith and relationship with Christ Jesus will grow deeper and stronger. Thank you very much for your love and concern for the family of faith.

Ossining, NY (WFME) - I'm in prison for the first time in my life at the age of fifty-three. No, I'm not proud of what I've done... Actually, I'm quite ashamed! You see, it cost me everything I loved - my family. But, nevertheless, I now see God had a plan for me. I gave my life to Christ in the spring of 2010. And in that time I've come to understand, it's no mistake that I'm here. God got me right where He wanted me, so nothing on the outside distracts me from getting to know Him and the rebuilding of my soul. I'm not going to lie... it gets awfully lonely without my family. You see, they're sort of still upset with me. So, when I tuned to your radio station and heard you speak of free post cards with beautiful Scriptures, I thought how nice it would be to share them with my family. Who knows, maybe God's Word will touch their hearts. So, I'm writing to tell you how your station has touched me, as have the materials you offer free to share with those I love and miss. James.

Tehachapi, CA (KFRB) - Dear Family Radio. I want to thank you for your services. I really appreciate all you do. I want to request some of your post cards. I would very much appreciate it. Gabriel.
