

God Is Our Refuge And Our Strength

PSALM 46

Arranged by Arthur S. Sullivan, 1871

God is our ref - uge and our strength,
A riv - er flow whose streams make glad
The na - tions raged, the king - doms moved,

Our ev - er pres - ent aid,
The cit - y of our God,
But when His voice was heard

And, there - fore, though the earth re - move,
The ho - ly place where - in the Lord
The trou - bled earth was stilled to peace

We will not be a - fraid;
Most High has His a - bode;
Be - fore His might - y word.

Though hills a - midst the seas be cast,
Since God is in the midst of her,
The Lord of hosts is on our side,

Though foam - ing wa - ters roar,
Un - moved her walls shall stand,
Our safe - ty to se - cure;

Yea, though the might - y bil - lows shake
For God will be her ear - ly help,
The God of Ja - cob is for us

The moun - tains on the shore.
When troub - ble is at hand.
A ref - uge strong and sure.
