A Word from Our President

The Perfect Father

One of my most cherished memories as a father is the day my wife and I brought home our daughter from the hospital. But, after the initial excitement of that day waned, my wife Christina and I looked at each other and realized we were wholly unprepared as parents.

In those early days I often prayed asking God for wisdom and for Him to bring me a mentor -- a friend to whom I could go for godly advice and counsel. I longed for a dad to come alongside me, put his arm around me, and tell me all will be well.

Since that time, the Lord has taught me some lessons as a father. First, there are no perfect human fathers. Even the godliest of fathers frequently questions himself and must acknowledge his own failures.

I also learned that looking for that perfect example among human fathers is to look in the wrong place. Instead, I needed to look no further than our Heavenly Father, the perfect Father.

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." James 1:17

What human father can compare to the Father of fathers?

How does God the Father show compassion to His children?

I John 4:10, "Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins."

Romans 5:8, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Psalm 86:15, "But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth."

Psalm 23:1, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want."

Lamentations 3:22-23, "It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness."

Philippians 4:19, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

New Board Member at Family Radio!

"Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." II Timothy 2:1-2

At Family Radio, we are always looking for faithful men and women to be part of our ministry. Allen Sill was a long-time listener and supporter of Family Radio in San Diego. Recently, he took a much bigger step and became our newest board member!

Allen managed multiple companies and even served as a California Highway Patrol officer for several years. He is also a father and knows how important it is to share God's Word and "train up a child in the way he should go" (Proverbs 22:6). Needless to say, he brings a great deal of experience to his role on our board.

Allen has a great understanding of our ministry. "Family Radio is so unique in its message... God's Word is alive. It is talking to me when I read it. It is powerful and this is the message that is so powerful... which makes us so unique."

Like all decisions made at Family Radio, prayer guided the decision to add Allen to our board. We are very excited and blessed that God answered those prayers and led Allen to join our team.

Welcome aboard, Allen!

Continued

Each day throughout my relationship with God, I have witnessed the perfect Father at work. I have witnessed Him renew His mercy towards me each day. I have seen Him love me without any hesitation or variation.

Now, consider this. What better example of a father could we hope to find? What better mentor could a man seek for fatherly counsel than God the Father? What other dad truly has the power to tell each one of us, "It will be okay?"

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28

"Like as a father pitith his children, so the Lord pitith them that fear him." Psalm 103:13
